You are invited to our first “All Hallows’ Eve” Festival.
We are looking for local businesses to participate in this Festival.

Our newest Festival, All Hallows’ Eve, will take place at the Camano Commons at Terry’s Corner. The Festival will run from 4 to 8 PM on Friday November 1 and Saturday November 2. We are doing this Festival to support local businesses and providing a fun event for our community.

We have space for 16 booths surrounding the Camano Commons. Each business needs to provide its own 10x10 foot tent for the event. There is no charge for your participation, Each booth will provide some fun activity for children and adults, along with prizes for those who participate ex: candy, gift bags, hot cider or hot chocolate etc. Some booth examples/ideas: decorate pumpkin contest, decorating Ghost cookies, pie eating, face painting, fishing booth, touch boxes, haunted house. We are sure you can come up with many more ideas.

The Arts Festivals will have a 20x20 tent in the center. We will also have Halloween movies, music, fog machine, laser lights with the bat signal and our Halloween Logo, youth/adult costume contest etc. Those attending the event will pay for a $3 bracelet per person or $10 bracelets for a family to participate in all of the activities. Income from this event will be donated to a local community organization or cause.

Many of you probably attended or were aware of our successful events this year, Mother’s Day Festival at Terry’s Corner in May and our Summer Arts Jam in Downtown Stanwood in July. We hope to bring the same enjoyment to our new All Hallows’ Eve event. If you wish to support our organization, we are a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit charitable organization. You can go to our Web site or contact us directly.

Please complete the attached application or go to our web site www.artsfestivals.org by September 30th, 2019.

Selected Business’s will be notified by email that they have been accepted on October 4th, 2019.
